

Emo Side Project, Silence

silence calls out now left memories in the dust to rot a flower bloomed today but it was still useless and thrown away you've been here all along it's the reason that i wrote this song i guess the night goes on well here it is again that familiar lonely feeling when you know it's all gonna end if not right now then tomorrow can't you hear me when i say it's over won't you whisper the truth in my ear cause we both know that it's over you couldn't have loved me anyway i'm sick of this pain i'm so sick of screaming in vain just leave me alone don't even ask for a ride home not right now not forever just give me a knife i could end this all right now or will the sun rise tomorrow just to bring me down again
