

Emo Side Project, The Sound Of Love

So this was a sing along?
Oh, Lets just hum along
(Lets just hum along)
To the sound of love,
(To the sound of love)
Coming from a dove,
That's flying above.
(Flying from above)
Above, Above
And that little dove sings its heart out
Not know what's coming next,
Oh God

So you finally decided to stop
To stop singing along
(Stop singing along)
Oh, so soon darling?!
So soon darling!?
(Stop singing along)
It didn't take that long!
(Didn't take that long)
Yeah well the notes were off anyway,
(You gave up so easy!)
I was off tune anyway.

You'll move on to a new song
With a happier beat
Maybe something that can move your feet
But you'll never feel
(You'll never feel that feeling again)
Like I made you feel
I promise..
(Oh god, I promise)
Oh, I promise...

Lets just hum along to the sound of love
(Lets just hum along)
To the sound of love,
(To the sound of love)
Coming from a dove,
(A dove)
That's flying above.
(Flying from above)
Above, Above
(And that little dove sings it's heart out
Not know what's coming next)
As it falls to it's death,
As love fails and you're dead.
(But don't you ever forget it's grace,
Because it sang with every ounce of heart.)
