

Emo Side Project, This Pink Bracelet Made Me S

this bracelet you gave me reminds me of hard times when crying knocked the wind clear out of me i said i'll never feel better no, i'll never feel better

and staying up later, since you said you would call me but it's been two hours past the time that you promised me it's all been going down hill since early last week you've broken your promise so i'm breaking my promise too

but it doesnt matter much i can ignore it
i can forgive you
but can you say sorry
and will you mean it?
do i love you for nothing
do i love you for nothing

i just don't understand you girl it's hard to believe that everything i've done for you is not what you need but i guess that i'll move on i guess i can live it's you i can't handle now, it's you i can't handle now.

i can forgive you
will you say sorry
and do you mean it?
do i love you for nothing

i can ignore you
i can forget you
i can say sorry
and yes i'll mean it

when crying knocked the wind clear out of me i said
i'll never feel better no, i'll never feel better, i'll never feel better, i'll never feel better.
