

Emo Side Project, Titles Are Useless

here we go again four o'clock in the morning all i can do is stay awake cause my reputation says so and we prove we're strong with false looks aimed to keep you alive take me for granted cause i won't be here forever my time is wasted to fast and my pain is never healed my body is aching i'm not going to lie everything's wrong but rightly speaking we are doing just fine if lying in bed is the solution to all of our problems then crown me a problem solver but keep your own you look better on anyways you're so in style i miss you today to let you know even though i told you i am shattered and it is the truth but that doesn't mean i'm not good for a prayer or two maybe three if i get lucky youll come back to me and i am right it'll be so trite ill be so scared here we go again its eight in the evening but i can't sleep its too early and i'm not ready to deal with the hurt that you let me and i'll prove that i can make it better but what if i'm wrong, would i see you again i just don't know so take me for granted cause i won't be nice for much longer unless you say sorry i'm not going to lie everything's wrong but in a way i'm doing just fine if slitting my wrist is the solution to all of my problems then arnt i better how come i'm sad crown me me problem solver but make sure you save some for yourself cause we all know you want too

i am shattered i am broken it wont get better doesn't mean i'm not good for a prayer

titles are useless to me you won't read them anyway and you won't stay you're already gone so i'm left here alone it's all just the same if i meet you again would you remember my name but it's ok i won't i made you a promise and i'm going to keep it no matter what it takes i'll let you know even though i told you i am shattered i am broken i'll never be the same
