

Emo Side Project, We Live On

smile me a garden of laughter and joy cry me a rainbow with tin at its end instead of gold and sing me a poem of full of love shout at me in slience that's louder than words tell me of mystery, tell me of pain paint me a picture that's made of your name my heart is yours now that you're gone your songs buried with you but we live on sneer at my hopes, laugh at my dreams love with your soul i'm afriad to dream borrow my happiness or steal it from me don't tell the truth cause a lie is all that you need
