

EMO, The End (piosenka z filmu 365 Dni: Ten Dz

I try to forget your name
But I'm falling apart into pieces
And I think to myself
Are we damned?

We almost lost this game
Someone turned her love to dust
And sky full of tears
We can have love

We will never be so lonely
We didn't know the storm was coming

Everything that hurts is gone now
Hope it's always never come back
Promise me
We will live forever
Live forever

If rain comes again
Then you will fade away
When time dies on our hands
Will we wait

We will never be so lonely
We didn't know the storm was coming

Everything that hurts is gone now
Hope it's always never come back
Promise me
We will live forever
Live forever
