

Emperor, The Prophet

... and as if awoken from eternal sleep
he sought a mentor

for he no longer knew his position

"It is time after miracles
and I am its prophet I have not come to cure
but to bear witness de cease";

"It is the place where blood and soil lie beyond the boundaries of the sun
and I am its prophet
I cast the shadow
I absorb the light";

"I am the prophet
I bear witness
I absorb
I cry";

"As I die
I shall burst wide open
As I die
I shall release the apocalypse my prophecy
Thus, I hold on to faith
Thus, I keep the hope That it will prosper
and devour";

"It is time after miracles
and I am its prophet
I have not come to cure
but to bear witness de cease";

... and pain joined his urge to perceive