

Empires, I Want Blood

I want blood, I want blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you

Desperate and a little delusional
You put my heart to grindstone
I'm waiting anxiously outside your home
Oh dear, the biggest of all fears
You wish to hell I was not here
You wish to hell and I appear
Oh dear

I want blood, I want blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you

Quiet now, you're sucking the charm out
I tried the "get you to love" route
But now the monster in rage holds me down
Anger's a lesser disaster
The truth is I've got a fever
You scream insanity, I'll be right there

I want blood, I want blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you
I want blood, I want blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you

Oh, we've got trouble now

I look for answers but there's nothing I will see
No matter how far away, everywhere you seem
A mirror arrangement in my eyes and you repeat
And it tempts me to believe

And I want blood, I want blood from you
If it ain't your love, I want blood from you
Yeah, I want blood
If it ain't your love (I want blood from you)
