

EMPYR, Forbidden Song

Your name is written on a head stone
Rest in peace they will miss you, now
Everything tastes so different today
There are no secrets left to tell

I'm alive but I feel dead inside
Now I can see my deepest scars
It seems I don't have any choice
I give my life to hear your voice

No apologies it's time to sink
The more I stay the less I live

Forever young, you're nowhere but everywhere I belong
It's time to sing
This forbidden song, so everyone will know that You're the one

My name is written on a headstone
I found my peace it's in the ground
What a beautiful ending
Without a tear I'm with you now

No apologies I'm finally here
The more we share the more we are

Forever young, we're nowhere but now it feels like home
It's time to play
This forbidden song, so everyone will know what I've done

We're nowhere now
