

EMPYR, Join Us

You feel like you're free
When you jump from the third floor
I saw you sitting
In the middle of the road
If you lose all of your teeth
Every night in every dream
You're not my enemy
When you look just like me

Wake up now
Keep your head high
Choose your path
(The new world belongs to us)

You feel like you're free
When you're lost in empty streets
I saw you smiling
A metallic taste in your mouth
If you cry when you think
Of all the things you should have done
You're not my enemy
When you see that we are one

Join us now

You think you're born to suffer
I think you're born to resist
This is all about the way you take, the way you give
This is all about you, this is all about me
