

Enchanting, Take It Back

I should've listened when you said you was a bad boy
You turned me out and gave me feelings I ain't had, boy
I should've known you wasn't shit when I felt paranoid
You ran your game, and I went with it, guess I asked for it
Used to make my legs shake, now you make my head ache
Used to make my bed break, now I want you far away
And I ain't mean to catch these feelings, wish they'd go away
I ain't had no business even fuckin' with you, no way (No way)

I wish I could take my pussy back, yeah
I wish I could take my pussy back, oh yeah
I know I should've never loved him
I know I should've never fucked him
Know I should've never trusted him, I don't know
I wish I could take my pussy back
Take it back

'Member them days you pull up late, I let you beat it
You give me a minute to catch my breath, then we repeat it
Somethin' about you, whatever it is, no, I don't need it
It could be us, it's only you 'cause you conceded, 'ceded
Who is gon' get down on both knees and I say beg like that?
What's seen in you when you in deep, I was your acrobat
You ain't deserve it, nigga, really ain't worth it
We would've been perfect, but now it's over

I wish I could take my pussy back, yeah
I wish I could take my pussy back, oh yeah
I know I should've never loved him
I know I should've never fucked him
Know I should've never trusted him, I don't know
I wish I could take my pussy back
Take it

Used to make my legs shake, now you make my head ache
Take it back
Make my legs shake, now I want you far away
T-take it back

I know I should've never loved him
I know I should've never fucked him
Know I should've never trusted him, I don't know
I wish I could take my pussy back (Take it back)
I wish I could take my pussy back, yeah
I wish I could take my pussy back, oh yeah
I know I should've never loved him
I know I should've never fucked him
Know I should've never trusted him, I don't know
I wish I could take my pussy back
Take it back
