

End Of Green, Away

What I see here is beyond the way I never walk and I see the mistakes of humans I'm feelin' my life is killing me

It's the other way the other side I'll be tonight and I see what my illusions means I'm feelin' it's time to meet my destiny

What I'm feelin' is beyond the way I never walk alone my life is the price I have to pay I be alone when I die in this empty rainy night

And I have to search I have lost my way where ever I go I nver meet my
