

End Of Green, Dying In Moments

Sad is the moment all the time. Still be surrounded by pale lights. Sad is the moment when you go.
There has nothing changed when all the days are gone. but there's one thing now here in this night, one thing you can't change this life. We are dying in moments when we're alive. Frozen the moment all the time. Sadly my soul I can't avoid. Shine velvet flower on my grave. Dead I will smile my darkest days.
