

Endanger, A Story Of

Strophe 1

They try to keep you small - afraid of losing their control (you can't be, no you can't be)
But your will is getting strong - inside you feel the overcome (you can be, yes you can be if you...)

Strophe 2

They watch the moves you make - waiting for your big mistake (you can't be, no you can't be)
but there is no turning back - once you ever made this step (you can be, yes you can be if you...)

Vocoder

Dont let them tell you lies please open up your eyes dont let them tell you all that they want to

Ref.:

If you open your eyes
you will realise they told you only lies and all that they desire
