

Endanger, Telling Lies

Strophe 1

Never tear it apart our love will last! always stay with you without you I am lost kiss my lips and hold me tight it never has to end how many more of these lies were you able to spend ?

Strophe 2

This is for ever and for eternity
I remember these words because once you told them to me

Bridge

I learned my lesson from your attraction
I keep my heart from tearing it apart
I hide my feelings deep deep inside so you can never hurt me with your lies

Ref.:

Hey, hey, hey
you are way of line for the touch of your hands and the words that you spend you're telling only lies
