

Endeavour, Moonlight Embrace

Seizing a chance of a lifetime, it's fading away
Demons' encampment misleading into disarray
Head for the shadow it's too far behind
Enchantment of soul meeting more of my kind
And the starlit sky it's there for us to fly

Enjoy in the dying sun
Rejoice, everything's been done
Awaiting the darkness,
waiting for Moonlight Embrace

We try to face the clear nightfall
Arise and shine to carry out the past recall:
To pass the point of no return our souls depart
Tonight the surges of delight refill my heart

These questions are for all to see
What kind of life is there for me?
To be locked up eternally...
Or am I just condemned to live?

Torment and temptation have come in our life to stay
Searching for salvation will only lead to dismay
Timeless desire of danger lies deep
Staying alive by the skin of my teeth
Yet the starlit sky is there for us to fly

Enjoy in the dying sun
Rejoice, everything's been done
Awaiting the darkness,
waiting for Moonlight Embrace

We try to face the clear nightfall
Arise and shine to carry out the past recall:
To pass the point of no return our souls depart
Tonight the surges of delight refill my heart