Endymion, It's All Music

The whole thing is based on respect Respect to the music Respect to the djs Respect to the crowd And respect to one another

We have to remain in constant contact But look around yourselves We got every kind of person in this room And they're not kicking fucking attitude It's about music

Music never separated people Noones style of music is better than the other Noones style is truer than the other It's all music, It's all music
