

Enfp, Can I Question

Can i question
so we can stop guessing what the other's thinking while my heart is sinking, yeah

I was calling
But her heart was stalling Time is just a blessing, granted we Gather for confessing

What's on my mind
I'm always a page behind
Blue moon tell true
Can this man jump over you?

My mood is mellow head resting on my pillow Courage comes in waterfalls when I'm searching down incorrect halls fancy dolls and shopping malls can cloud your mind when true love calls

So here is the question
Will you walk by me cause i'm afraid to take a chance Or will you look a little closer And help us find this hidden romance?

hey do you feel the way i do?

what's on my mind?
blue moon tell true
can this man really jump over you
