

Engelina, Intuition

Found an answer in my heart that I will follow
it might keep sanity at bay
But I'll be hollow not to give a part of me
I get so much from you
Could this really be a wrong when it feels right to do

Uuh..
Feels like my past
Is a page I turn
In a book of fate
I lived and I learned
I'm playing my own game now
I'm making rules I won't pretend
When intuition conquers you
You will win in the end

Found an answer in my heart that I will follow

It might keep sanity at bay
But I'll be hollow not to give a part of me
I get so much from you
Could this really be a wrong when it feels right to do

Easy drifting away on believing
Never give up on a feeling

Found an answer in my heart
Found an answer in my heart

Found an answer in my heart that I will follow
It might keep sanity at bay
But I'll be hollow not to give a part of me
I get so much from you
Could this really be a wrong when it feels right to do
