

Engerica, Funeral Song

I remove your sweater
Turns you off Loretta
Your breath stinks, so kiss me
I trust you completely
You pig! You liar! I won't set you on fire
My heart aches, in amber, my life is, September

I've got this face you see, God made a fool of me
I took my pills in 1 2 3s and now the world is done with me

And if I gave you my real opinion
I'd never ever tell you truth
And if I gave you my real opinion
I'd have to throw up over you
No, will I ever get to see you suffer?

Yeah!
And the second verse will go...

Wish. What would you wish for?
A satellite dish and a wife and kids
And a house and a car you could kiss for?
The feeling's displaced, when lies are erased
The marks on my thighs will tell you no lies but
She had the looks, but she had no right
I went into her room into the middle of the night
When everything is wrong and everything's a mess
So come on come on and take off your blue dress yeah!

What have we got here, a bad solution
You take your pills in 1 2 3s and now the world is done with me

And if I gave you my real opinion
I'd never ever tell you truth
And if I gave you my real opinion
I'd have to throw up over you
No, will I ever get to see you suffer?

You're right there
You're right there

Goddam! I had to see you naked
Goddam! I had my whole life wasted
1...2...3 and your body breaks
4...5...6 and you're never late
7...8...9 get a crucifix
10...11...12 then your baby kicks
