

Engine, Bear Your Cross

All the years that pass me by
I still wonder why
You left it all behind
You turned away
So I found it on my own
Desire
And you never did look back
To see what I've become
One of forgotten sons
You never knew
So I found it on my own
Desire
I found it on my own
Desire
I'll bear this cross you've left behind
Wish we'd talked about it then
I still remember
Don't know what I would have said
But it's too late
I'll bear this cross you've left behind
