

Engine Down, Cover

Enter please enter
How much is required?
Borderline unpleasant
You faked this desire
The appearance was made in full view
They are glad you came past due
Center no center
No sight of how this started

Your cover has been blown
I know you're alone
But the center of attention
You speak no sign of leaving
But you've stopped breathing
And I can't afford the loss

Comfort look comfortable
Points taken for lack of confidence
Straighten now you're so proud
Hold back before you blow it
Not exactly how you hoped
But who's to blame for this bad note?

Your cover has been blown
I know you're alone
But the center of attention
You speak no sign of leaving
But you've stopped breathing
And I can't afford the loss

Now that you fit in
Is it what you've dreamed of?
To be the center of
Now that you fit in
Is it what you've dreamed of?
To be the center of
Attention

Your cover has been blown
I know you're alone
But the center of attention
You speak no sign of leaving
But you've stopped breathing
And I can't afford the loss
And I can't afford the loss
