

Engine, You're Awake

Sight as it blinds
I feel the darkness as it comes
And you invade everything that I was
All that you could
Everything you are, you as me
Everything you are
And you know that you're awake 'cause you feel inside
And you know when you're awake 'cause you feel inside
State, State of mind
I feel the crushing weight of all you say
All you think all you feel
And all you see in front of
Everything you are, you as me
Everything you are
And you know that you're awake 'cause you feel inside
Feel inside
