

English Dogs, Caveman Brain

You try to fight what you don't understand
You laugh at us 'cos we're a punk rock band
Just the same when you were at school
You did all your homework and you never broke a rule
So when you left school you had it sussed
You married a girl with a forty-two bust
Just eighteen and your wife's dropped a sprog
You're happy with a mortgage and a steady job
What happened to the kid and the big titted wife
When you lost your job they walked out your life

[Chorus:]

Caveman Brain

Here we go again

Caveman Brain

You're a sucker to yourself

You're a sucker to me

A sucker, sucker, sucker to all society.
