English Dogs, Your Country

So you wanna join the army And you wanna be a man You wanna go to Ireland And get killed by a bomb Does you family want to See you as a corpse Because youre wrapped around In your empty thoughts [Chorus:] Fighting for the army Marching for the army Just another part of Your death in the army Rules and regulations Imprinted in your brain You brothers been killed Oh! What a shame Left, right, Left, right Thats right son Marching all together Itll be a lot of fun Youre in the army now so Get that gun clean Switch off your brain Youre now a machine Slaughtered like cattle You hear it on the news Quite country lane Victim of their views