

Englishman J., Staring At The Sun

I'll follow to the ending
Of your spiritual emending
Play the martyr - take the hammer to the heart
And when we can't find the answers
We'll just say it never mattered
And keep on smiling when the whole thing falls apart

And I want to be the one
Staring at the sun (2x)

So you can go your way dear
If you want just leave me lay here
Cause I'm too tired to argue anymore
And I'm not concerned with winning
Like I was in the begining
All this pettyness has numbed me to the core

And I want to be the one
Staring at the sun (2x)

I want to be left behind
I want to burn out these eyes
So let your fires unwind - I won't see
Let the blind lead the blind

And I want to be the one
Staring at the... (2x)

I want to go blind (at the sun)
But I can't close my eyes (at the sun)
Well I just want to go blind (at the sun)
But I can't close my eyes (at the sun)
