

ENHYPEN, Drunk-Dazed

Beautiful and brilliant
My glittering vision is a diamond
In a world with no rules
Everything's been turned upside down

Turning up the party, now
My feet up in the sky, wow
People going ha ha high
Ringing in my ears is la la loud

It's blinding baby
His light, shining
We're in love with this carnival

Honestly I am scared
The world's drunk is a swirling glass
At the Edge is my burning heart
But I just wanna stay

I feel it
My head's in a Daze Daze Daze
I am addicted
I replay play play
The way you want it
Go as far as you can to reach it
