

ENHYPEN (ENHYPEN), Given-Taken

Wake up in day one
First day morning
Lights shining
Eyes of the sun

The light burned me
The light blinded me
But i go now
Follow my dreams

Dive into red sun
No lie

Countless stars
Countless moons
I was wandering in the woods of questions
I followed in the light in the dark

You calling me over the thin line
I who calls you

To you
In a shower of fate;s arrows
To
Face the horizon inside me
Free
Given or taken
My red eyes
To you
I flip over the world
To
I step into the sky
Me
Given or taken
My white fangs
