

Enigma 4, Gravity Of Love

(Latin Chant "O Fortuna velut Luna")

Turn around and smell what you don't see
Close your eyes ... it's so clear
Here's the mirror, behind there is a screen
And with wings you can get in
Don't think twice before you listen to your heart
Follow the trace of a random star

What you need and everything you feel
Is just the question of the day
In the eye of storm
You'll see a lonely dove
The experience of survival is the key
To the gravity of love

(woman)
The path of excess leads to
The tower of Wisdom

(man)
The path of excess leads to
The tower of Wisdom

Try to think about it ...
That's the chance to live your life and discover
What is it, what's the gravity of love

Look around just people,
Can you hear their voice?
Find the one who'll guide you
To the limits of your choice

But if you're in the eye of storm
Just think of the lonely dove
The experience of survival is the key
To the gravity of love.
