

Enrico Garzilli, How Does A Girl Become A Woman

Hlose

How do the blossoms know it's spring?
Who tells the bud that it's a rose?
How does the blue finch learn to sing?
How does a girl become a woman?
How does my song inside get born?
Who tells the stars that it's the morn?
Have you ever seen a rose without a thorn?
How does a girl become a woman?

Blanche

Please, be careful. Please, be careful
It's best to look before you leap
Please, be careful. Please, be careful
You know, I'd hate to see you weep

Hlose

I'll always look before I leap
Flying higher than the swans
I don't care if I never sleep
I know how a girl becomes a woman
I know how a girl becomes a woman
When he's wonderful

Blanche

And so warm, and so fine

Hlose

When he's noble and upstanding

Blanche

When he's darling, and lowstanding

Hlose

Every blossom blooms as fast as it can

Both

When a boy becomes a man