

Enrico Garzilli, Zero Hour(Reprise)

Guibert

Zero hour!

Zero hour, zero hour

Creeps upon you in the night

Zero hour, zero hour

Don't try to use your sight

Now, what will you do when your back is to the wall

Now what will you do when you pushed will you not fall

Now what will you do when your face is to the ground

Now what will you do when sweet comfort can't be found

Zero hour!

Zero hour, zero hour

Sneaks upon you like a thief

Zero hour, zero hour

Don't try to find relief

Now, what will you do when you're kicked will you not crawl

Now what will you do when you're spinning like a ball

Now what will you do when your hands are bruised and tight

Now what will you do when you're lost without a guide

Zero hour, zero hour

Turns your flesh and blood to ice

Zero hour, zero hour

Don't make the same mistake twice

Now what will you do when you're cut will you not bleed

Now what will you do when your dreams have turned to seed

Now what will you do when they knife you in the back

Now what will you do when you're tied up in a sack

Zero hour, zero hour

Turns your flesh and blood to ice

Zero hour, zero hour

Don't make the same mistake twice

Now what will you do when they're laughing in your face

Now what will you do when your soul feels in disgrace

Now what will you do when you're hanging by a thread

Now what will you do when they wish that you are dead

Show us what you'll do, teacher

Show us what you'll do, seer

Show us what you'll do, lover, teacher, seer

Show us what you'll do, teacher

Show us what you'll do, seer

Show us what you'll do, lover, teacher, seer, skuller

Lover, teacher, seer, skuller, lover

Zero hour, zero hour

Makes you doubt if you are sane

Zero hour, zero hour

You can't hide the pain

Zero hour!
