

Ensiferum, Abandoned

Sing for your tears a song of the hatred
No one can hear
'cause your life is forgotten
I want to give my life to you but my will is tied with puppet strings I am fighting and screaming alone inside this empty room
They let you down, threw you in the rain
They let you down, sent you away... without a name

The night is dark when you're alone and sometimes it can be so cruel The rain keeps falling on me so coldly
'cause your wishes didn't come true

Nothing seems real anymore as I dive into the sea of lies I don't understand this sorrow that keeps me sane
