

Ensiferum, The New Dawn

Through the storm and the wind we ride
Leaving it all far behind
Another war is straight ahead
This fight will give us all
None shall live they all will fall
When the new dawn arises, we stand tall

Fight! For a new dawn
Ride! And kill them all
Fight! For a new dawn
Rise! Now is the dawn

Feel your strength and let it rise
Hear the call of their demise
Let them feel your steel
Have faith my friend, this is not the end
Our time is near, we feel your fear
'Cause we will...

Fight! For a new dawn
Ride! And kill them all
Fight! For a new dawn
Rise! Now is the dawn

Nothing can stop us now
As we march towards the final fight
And we shall see the light
Our swords are taking lives
Giving us what is ours
Now the new dawn arises
And we all...

Fight! For a new dawn
Ride! And kill them all
Fight! For a new dawn
Rise! And we stand tall
