

Ensign, Pale Horse

Go

Point your finger

Shake your head

Denial in your eyes

Explain away the images

With propaganda and lies

Justify the wrongs committed

Then hide behind the lies

Cover up another truth

And hope the story dies

What worth the risk

To expose the lies

To find the truth

Just to survive

Ignorance is so much safer

I just won be blind

You can keep me down

When I can use my mind

Crawl into tomorrow

I can face the day

Armed with all the knowledge

You tried to take away

What worth the risk

To expose the lies

To find the truth

Just to survive

What worth the risk

What worth the risk
