

Enter Shikari, A Kiss For The Whole World x

Be embraced, billions
This kiss for the whole world

Can this day last forever?
There's no sign of stormy weather
I could kidnap the sky
And pour it straight into my glass
It's time that I asked
Are you ready or d'you need one more measure?
Be braced, be together

We'll be fighting on the frontline
Up on cloud 9
We're true believers
The last of the dreamers

But we're running for our lives now
And we're running for our lives
One last kiss
And this kiss for the whole world

And we're running for our lives now
And we're running for our lives
One last kiss
And this kiss for the whole world

And we're running for our lives now
And we're running for our lives
One last kiss
And this kiss for the whole world

You're still standing like a statue
You stay calm when all about you
Is falling apart
Joy is a vanishing act
It's looking intact
But like you, it's just a mythical treasure
Be braced, be together

We'll be dancing on the frontline
To symphony number 9
Can you see us?
Nothing comes between us

And we're running for our lives now
And we're running for our lives
One last kiss
And this kiss for the whole world

Yo, yo, yo, yo
Get it
This kiss for the whole world

Get it
This kiss for the whole world

And we're running for our lives now
And we're running for our lives
One last kiss
And this kiss for the whole world

And we're running for our lives now
One last kiss
This kiss for the whole world
