

Enter The Haggis, Echo Of A Whisper

I can close my eyes and see you
Beautiful Caroline
And you smile as though you feel my eyes on you...
And I could move the world without you
Beautiful Caroline
But I'd never know just to move it to
Not without you

I just found a savior
You'll choose my behavior
It helps me understand
I am not a hero
I've never stopped a bullet
But with your help, I can...

I can close my eyes and see you
Beautiful Caroline
And you smile as though you feel my eyes on you...

And I could move the world without you
Beautiful Caroline
But I'd never know just where to move it to
Not without you

Give me reason to stay
Riding the line of fire
Right in harm's way
I feel so unhappy inside
Well, I hope I could die
Just to watch you fade away...

To think I almost missed it
Like an echo of a whisper...
