

Entombed, Mesmerization Eclipse (Captain Beyo

[Originally performed by Captain Beyond, written by Caldwell/Evans]

See the bright ship in the harbor, hey
Making iridescent waves
Need to try a little harder
On the voyage to better days

Saw the moon in the valley at the same time
Bringing out the golden parade
Guess we're gonna reach the peak in no time
Optic nerve just rot away

Mesmerization eclipse is a movement

Hey

Desperation is setting in, baby
Erratic movement to and fro
Need your love to make it right, baby
'Cause I have no place to go

Saw the moon in the valley at the same time
Hey, baby, you know it's true (?)
Guess we're gonna reach the peak in no time, yeah
Optic nerve just can't get fooled

Hey

On earth, sudden daylight blew my time (?)
Things got lost, oh so lost
Now I'm out of time (?)
Hey

Mesmerization baby
Mesmerization baby
Mesmerization baby
Mesmerization baby

Mesmerization baby
Mesmerization baby
Mesmerization baby
Mesmerization baby

Ooh, you god (?)
Pulled you in like the ancient sirenes
To evidence what lies within (?)
Hear the visitation sermon, yeah (?)
Never quite deserved the feeling (?)

It's a mesmerization eclipse, that's right
It's a mesmerization eclipse, oh babe
It's a mesmerization eclipse, oh that's right
A mesmerization eclipse, that's right
A mesmerization eclipse, oh, that's right
