

Entwine, Everything For You

I hide my thoughts
Behind these truthfull lies
So, I swell
No sense of time
I'm lost inside my head
So, I throw my life away
(I'd give everything for you)

I'm lost inside
Without you I'm not free
And for your love
I'm struggling in between

I hide my loss
Behind these truthfull lies
It's my spell
With you my life's
So sacred and secure
I long to live for you

I'm lost inside
Without you I'm not free
And for your love
I'm struggling in between

I'm lost inside
Without you I'm not free
And for your love
I'm struggling in between

How many lives do I have to live
Without your touch on my skin
How many tears I have to cry
Without you here by my side
