

Entwine, Safe In A Dream

On the edge of life. After all these days are gone.
The endless haze will rise. I close my eyes.
I'm safe from all harm. I'm safe in a dream.

I want you to stay. I want you to be there for me.
'Cos I need your love. I need your touch.
I long for your embrace.

On the edge of time.
All the scenes are falling behind. It seems that all is lost.
I close my eyes. I'm safe from all harm. I'm safe in a dream.

I want you to stay. I want you to be there for me.
'Cos I need your love. I need your touch.
I long for your embrace.
