

Entwine, Stream Of Life

In the state of your mind, burning low.
And the fear you hide, seems to grow.
The shade of your lies, makes you blind.
And you live your life with no desire.

It's in your head, it's in your eyes.
It's in your dreams, it's in disguise.
So you should try to free your mind.
Then you'll find the stream of life.

Well it's easy to drown in this life.
Now's the time for you to realize.
With the burden inside, you'll get lost.
Here's the reason for you to wake up.

It's in your head, it's in your eyes.
It's in your dreams, it's in disguise.
So you should try to free your mind.
Then you'll find the stream of life.
Let it flow.
