

Entwine, The Pit

I sleep to dream away. Stuck inside a dream.
I feel a breeze blowing through my mind.
I hear her calling me. She lays all in ruins.
And suffocates everything I love.

I pray someday the sun will shine on me.
I dance throughout the night in pale moonlight.

I'm sliding to her sin. The pain is cast aside.
I think it's time to leave it all behind.
I'm in a ring of fire. All I had is gone. Forever lost. Oh please set me free.

I pray someday the sun will shine on me.
I dance throughout the night in pale moonlight.

I'm losing faith in who I am, so'

I pray someday the sun will shine on me.
I dance throughout the night in pale moonlight.
