

Entwine, Time Of Despair

Eternal is the pain that you gave me.
Lonely roses wither and die.
These tears of mine stain your veil.
I'm forced to hide and fade away.
So soon the time will come.
Take my life and bring me to the ground.

In this Time of Despair.
When all that you love is dead.
It's my desireless game to be alive.

It's a heart of stone that beats inside.
I'm forced to climb over the walls.
Stillness falls upon this endless night.

In this Time of Despair.
When all that you love is dead.
It's my desireless game to be alive.
I'm trying to get well.
But I'm just cryin' for the end.
It's my desireless way to be alive.

Eternal is the pain that you gave me.
Lonely roses wither and die.

In this Time of Despair.
When all that you love is dead.
It's my desireless game to be alive.
I'm trying to get well.
And no more cryin' for the end.
A desireless way to be alive.
