

Enuff Z'Nuff, Wheels

I'm the little boy blue I'm the man in the moon I'm a bit freaked out and a hair out of tune
They tell me that I might just lose it soon I'm the guy with a little and Ten's not enough But after 19 you're hooked on stuff float away just like a big balloon Yeah sometimes nothing's colder than the sun on a bad day
sometimes nopthing warms you like the rain, yeah
I'm a wheel
Wheels turn rolling over eveything in front of me
I'm a wheel
wheel's burn
Burning like the soul that's inside of me
I'm a wheel
wheel's turn
Take me away
I've been up I've been down
I've been in I've been out A confident smile and a heart full of doubt Working till I'm oh so tired out I make sisters and brothers with everyone
We howl at the moon and run from the sun Lately I don't know what it's all about Oh sometimes nothing's colder than the sun, on a bad day
And somethimes nothing warms you like the rain yeah.
I'm a wheel
Wheels turn
rolling over eveything in front of me
I'm a wheel
wheel's burn
Burning like the soul that's inside of me
I'm a wheel
wheel's turn
Take me away
