

Eowyn, Crashing

Simply put I am hanging on here
By a thread, so confused I need You.
Chaos runs so rampid in my head.
Will You stand by watching while I'm falling?

I need Your help not someone else.
My world is crashing, crashing.

Losing breath I now plummet deeper
Towards my death, so confused I need You.
Words of hope still linger in my head.
You will never leave me. I'm believing.
