

Epiclore, Riverball

A burning soul within Battle's nigh and hearts begin to pound
And as the clash begins
we show no mercy, give no ground

This train will break you
time and time again Come challenge us but
you will never win
Balls of steel...!

Riverball!
We make a stand and we'll never fall Riverball!
bask in the limelight forevermore

Time is running out
And so we're stronger once again Outcome on the wall and this defeat they will retain

This train will break you
time and time again
Come challenge us but
you will never win
Balls of steel...!

Riverball!
We make a stand and we'll never fall Riverball!
bask in the limelight forevermore
