

Epicure, The Goodbye Girl

goodbye starlight, goodbye moon goodbye everyone i ever knew. goodbye heartbeat, im gonna miss you shes sleeping softly in my room and goodbye girl... ill be seeing you when i wake up, i will wake up next to you goodbye blue eyes, goodbye breath goodbye to conversations in my head goodbye arguments with myself, everyday since you left goodbye explosives ticking, strapped to my chest goodbye girl girl... when my bloody work is through, heaven will be the road hat leads to you goodbye girl, ill be seeing you soon and when i wake up, i will wake up next to you
