

Erase The Grey, 2nd Chance

This is nothing more to me
Than a way to live again
I open my eyes and breathe
Where will I be when I awake
This is more than I can take
This is more than I can take

Take me away, I don't know
I don't know if I can change

Show me
Where you go
After you can't live anymore
I want my second chance
Today

I separate my blood from my veins
To try and calm the demons inside
This burning feeling in my brain
This painful kiss I can't hide
This is more than I can take
This is more than I can take

I take in everything I see
I can't breathe, I can't scream
It's slowly warping my brain
I can't breathe, I can't scream
There is nothing here for me
I can't breathe, I can't scream
I can't be what I want to be
I can't breathe, I can't scream
Would someone please just help me
I can't breathe, I can't scream
I don't feel alone I my dreams
I can't breathe, I can't scream

What do I do
Something that I've done wrong
I felt the time
To break it down to you
I feel like I, that I won't last
I want my, my second chance
