

Erasure, Be My Baby

Ooh, there could be love in your eyes
I could be loving you deep, my baby
Ooh, there could be love in your soul
I wanna feel the emotion

Ooh, there could be love in your heart
I want to feel it so deep down baby
Ooh, I could love you so bad
I want to give you devotion

Oh what's the matter with me now, baby
Feelings are mixed up inside
Come along and be mine only, child

You'd better be careful
Or you might just get what you are looking for
Now I'm in chains, not exactly what I'm looking for

Ooh, I'm putting magic aside

I love the look in your eyes now, baby
Ooh, it tells me you're mine
I want to dive in your ocean

Oh what's the matter with me now, baby
Feelings are mixed up inside
Come along and be mine only, child

You'd better be careful
Or you might just get what you are looking for
Now I'm in chains, not exactly what I'm looking for

You'd better be careful
Or you might just get what you are looking for
Now I'm in chains, not exactly what I'm looking for

You'd better be careful
Or you might just get what you are looking for
Now I'm in chains, not exactly what I'm looking for
