

Erasure, Grace

Looking in the papers makes me sorry to be human a little ray of hope won't hurt at all a price on every head &&& it's cheaper when you're dead quality of life may have to fall

Muffled voices, world in action
Stir the peaceful, need for longing

I, I cannot describe the fear inside my heart
I, hereby do swear to live my life in accordance with grace

Guess it's human nature to be cruel &&& to be heartless but that's no excuse to shoot him when he's down Crawl in on your knees &&& then bite the hand that feeds
The cages throw their shadows 'cross the ground

Where's the sense in senseless violence
Hear the silence too forgiving

I cannot describe the fear inside my heart
I, hereby do swear to live my life in accordance with grace

Press your hands in, into the pavement
Bathed in glory, here's your moment

I cannot describe the fear inside my heart
I, hereby do swear to live my life in accordance with grace

I, hereby do swear to live my life in accordance with grace
