

Erasure, Let It Flow

What about the good times, they were few and far between
That's the understatement of the year
Some would call it passion, but it means a lot to me
Life's little joke is coming clear

And that is
Stronger than strong
Wider than wide
Deeper than deep
Higher than high

All is love, and love is fine
Let it shine, let it flow
Let it flow, through me

All is love, and love is fine
Let it shine, let it flow
Let it flow, through me

You got twenty-twenty vision, when walking down the street
There's a fool on every corner standing by Nearly midnight and nothing here for me
Guess I'll have to wait till the morning light

And that is
Stronger than strong
Wider than wide
Deeper than deep
Higher than high

All is love, and love is fine
Let it shine, let it flow
Let it flow, through me

All is love, and love is fine
Let it shine, let it flow
Let it flow, through me

All is love, and love is fine
Let it shine, let it flow
Let it flow, through me

All is love, and love is fine
Let it shine, let it flow
Let it flow, through me

All is love, and love is fine
Let it shine, let it flow
Let it flow, through me
